H.H. Yaduveer Krishnadatta Chamaraja Wadiyar 27th Maharaja of Mysore (Karnataka) India gets honoured by World Book of Records - London

MYSORE: H.H. Yaduveer Krishnadatta Chamaraja Wadiyar - 27th Maharaja of Mysore (Karnataka) India has been honoured by World Book of Records for the world famous 10 day long MYSORE DASARA FESTIVITIES were celebrated virtually and in low key celebrations with restrictions and necessary protocols. The Royal Family of Mysore kept alive the traditions which have been going on unabated for the last 410 years. These colorful celebrations have attracted more than 10 lakh tourists and devotees from across the world every year. The certificate of honour was presented to H.H Yaduveer Krishnadatta Chamaraja Wadiyar by Mrs. Shikha Sharma (Adjudicator, WBR - India). Significantly, the main attraction of the ten-day Mysore Dasara festival is the Mysore Palace which is lighted daily with nearly 100,000 light bulbs from 7 pm to 10 pm on all days of the festival. Various cultural and religious programs highlighting the dance, music and culture of the State of Karnataka are performed in front of the illuminated Palace. On Vijayadashami, the traditional Dasara procession (locally known as Jumbo Savari) is held on the streets of Mysore city. The main attraction of this procession is the idol of the Goddess Chamundeshwari which is placed on a golden mantapa (which is around 750 kilograms of gold) on the top of a decorated elephant. This idol is worshipped by the royal couple and other invitees before it is taken around in the procession. Colourful tableaux, dance groups, music bands, decorated elephants, horses and camels form a part of the procession which starts from the Mysore Palace and culminates at a place called Bannimantap where the banni tree (Prosopis spicigera) is worshipped. According to a legend of the Mahabharata, banni tree was used by the Pandavas to hide their weapons during their one-year period of Agnatavasa (living life incognito). Before undertaking any warfare, the kings traditionally worshipped this tree to help them emerge victorious in the war. The Dasara festivities would culminate on the night of Vijayadashami with an event held in the grounds at Bannimantap called as Panjina Kavayattu (torch-light parade). On being recognized by World Book of Records, H.H Yaduveer Krishnadatta Chamaraja Wadiyar was congratulated by members of the Central Working Committee.

Dharmendra Bhalla, Jaipur (Rajasthan) India gets included by World Book of Records - London

For making a Kundan Jadau Ring with new technique in purest form of Gold

While his mind keeps inventing designs, Dharmendra Bhalla's heart aspires to bridge the gap between the age old Kundan jewellery making and need of current times. So he took up the challenge of doing something optimistic in dark times of pandemic and made a Kundan Jadau Ring in the design of Covid-19 shape and thus making it one of its kinds in the whole world. Hailing from the vibrant Rajasthan's colourful Jaipur city, Mr. Bhalla has designed a vivid peace of kundan ring which has never been designed before with the technique that has never been used before. World Book of Records, London appreciates the creative innovation in jewellery designing and includes this record in Gold Edition 2020. Mr. Bhalla attempted this innovative design with innovative technique of making this jewel ring which weights 17.458 gms and is engraved with 86 precious stones. He began the process and designing on 6th April 2020 and completed his journey by 27th April 2020. He also innovated the technique by not using any material base and CAD CAMM technique. Gold was in its purest form and no melting of gold was done. Also the engraving was done directly. Mr. Bhalla has mastered the art of Kundan jewellery making through his 30 years' journey in the same arena. Apart from being a jewellery art designer, he also is a teacher by heart and passion and teaches this precious art to those, who have an eye for details.
